f. Relocation of Headquarters Telephone Cable: Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia (C&P) is presently relocating telephone cables at the Headquarters compound. This work was initiated by two letter contracts that were delivered to C&P on 25 April 1984. These letter contracts were to be definitized by 30 May 1984; however, C&P failed to submit a cost proposal, as required, despite numerous phone calls. Finally, on 23 July 1984, C&P submitted a cost proposal. This proposal has been sent to Office of Finance, Commercial & Audit Division (OF/CSAD) for audit purposes. A definitized contract is expected by the middle of August.
